To the Gentlemen who have Lord Pembroke's Book.

N. B. Number your encreasing Leaves with a Pencil or Ink, from 1 to 308 inclusive; then you will readily find the printed Parts, and Tables answer to it.

The First Number is that of the Coins, or Medals, in each Plate: Then the Names of many of them; with the Notation used in the Book; and also the Number of Leaves, which contain those Coins.

These four Leaves may be put in the Book altho' it is bound.
